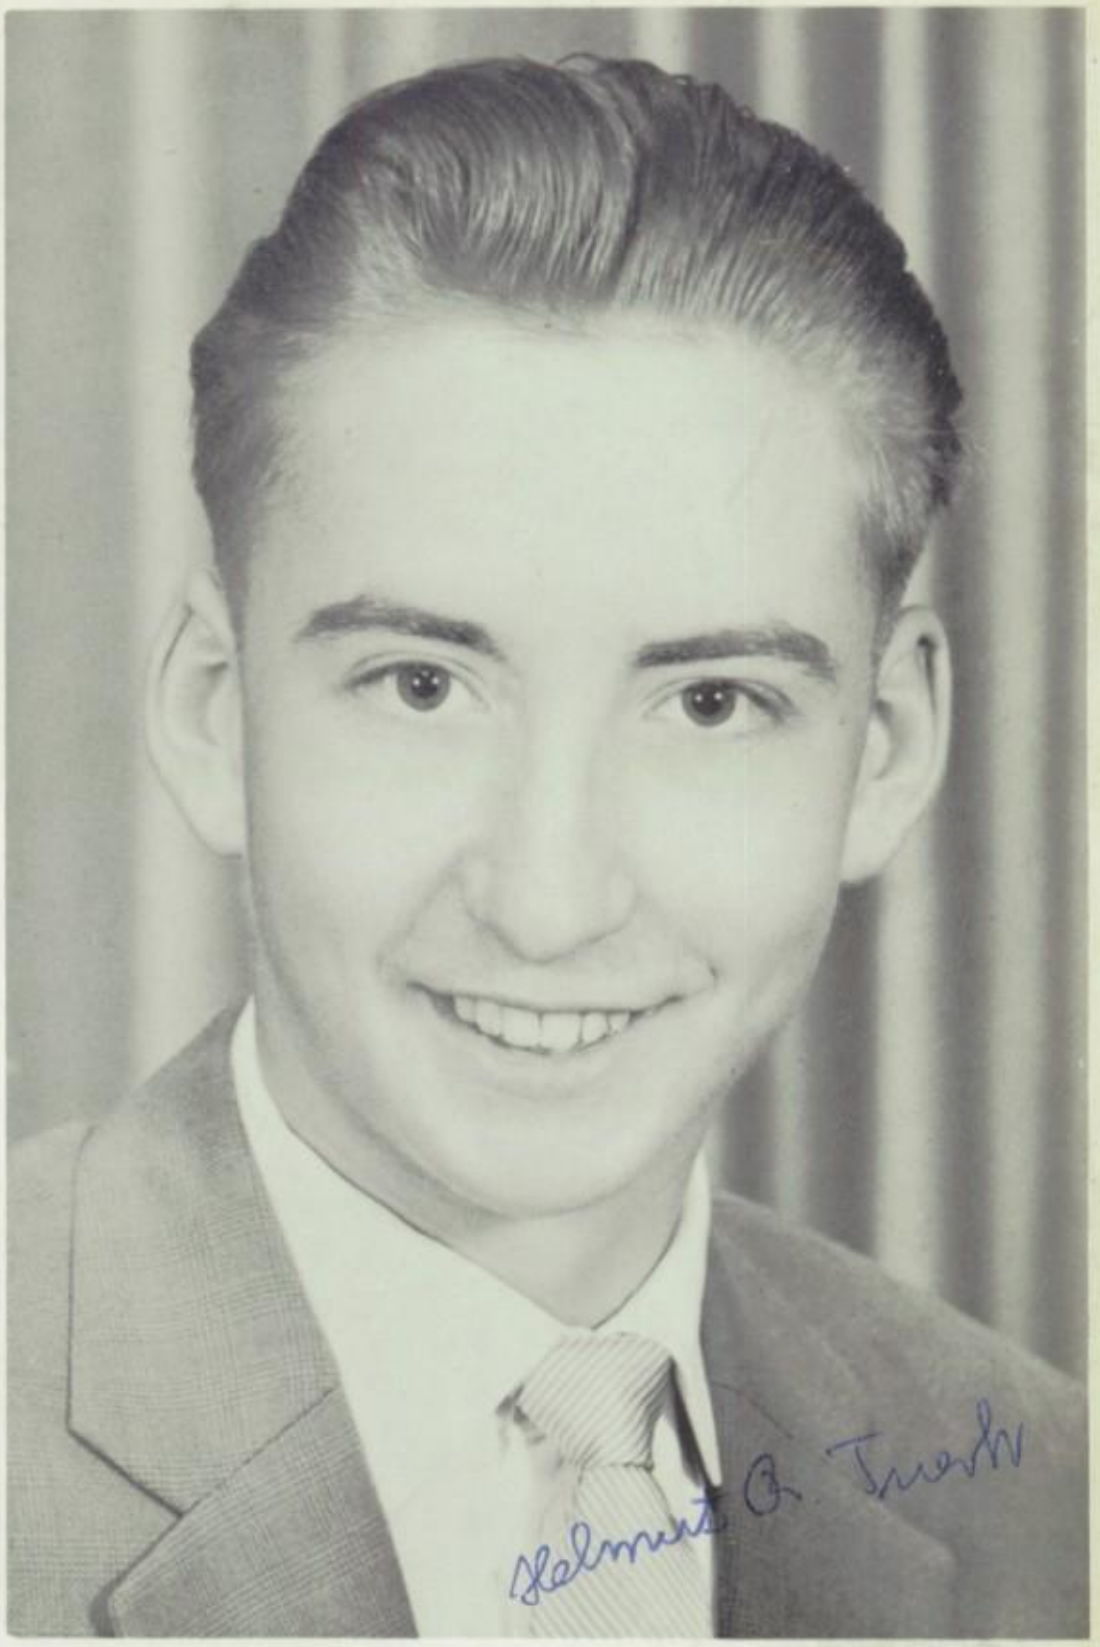
DEDICATION



It is with immense pleasure that we the Senior Class of 1958 dedicate this book to Helmut Tuerk, our first foreign exchange student. Besides being one of the top students, Helmut has participated heartily in all class and school activities. We in the school and town have accepted him as a fellow American citizen.
We are very proud to dedicate this Anvil to you, Helmut Tuerk.

ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater
Fairest of Shrines,
May lasting glory
Forever be thine.
Crowned with laurels of virtue,
Decked in garlands so bright,
We carry the banners
Of the green and the white;
We carry the banners
Of the green and the white.

Ever onward you struggle
Til the goal has been gained;
And we as descendants
Bear aloft that fair name.
So rejoice in the glory.
Praises to you we sing.
Dear Union City,
May thy fame never dim;
Dear Union City,
May thy fame never dim.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

The supervising principal of both schools, Mr. Leroy Brest, is new in Union City this year. He came here from East Mead School District in Guys Mills, Pennsylvania. At one time he was a classroom teacher of Social Studies, Health, and Physical Education. Mr. Brest has a B. S. in Health Education from State Teachers College in Slippery Rock, Penna. He also has a M. Ed. from Pennsylvania State University. "I am very well pleased with the Union City School District. I am enjoying my association with the School District and the friendly people."

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Russell Palmer, our High School Principal, is the key figure in making the school run smoothly. He is always ready to help any student in trouble. One of his duties is controlling the line of starving students at lunchtime. Through all the noise and uncontrollable students he still remains in good humor.

CLASS PROPHECY

As we looked the world over for the class of '58, we found that they were the first inhabitants of Mars. The new settlement was successful and prosperous.

The president of this Martian town, Beartown, is Dave Harris. As his assistant, Greg Besonson helps a lot. The secretarial work is done by Ellen Alexander, while Mary Kopnitsky handles the money.

Glenn Alexander is the commander of the space cadets with Wilbur Carson and Charles Rockwood as co-pilots.

Touring the town, we discover a new hospital designed and built by Willard King and Sons. The superintendent of nurses, Mary Chapman (King) had a lot to do with the "sons" part of King and Sons. Nancy Allen is the only other nurse in the hospital because the lack of air prevents germ spreading.

Continuing through the town we discovered a new Business Administration Building. John Morse is the head Business Administrator. His secretaries are Judy Giesler, Roberta Morris, and Jennie Bawol. There is also a dentist office in this building. Dr. Royce Rice has a patient-attracting medical secretary, (Miss) Dixie Lord. Next door is a photography studio owned and operated by John Courneen. His two right-hand men are Dick Fellows and Dave Drayer. Donna Anderson has the pleasant job of filing all information and pasting the best pictures in a scrap book.

While walking down the main street we noticed two policemen, Carl Brown and Joe Silka posing for the street corner portrait painter, Dave Bennett. The wonderful singing voice of the street-cleaner, Larry Lyman, rang throughout the town as he swept the street.

Around the corner an ultra-modern department store has been constructed. Ronnie Jones has just completed the window decorations. They consist of space helmets and Martian antennas. Judy Megat and Arlo Brenneman are doing a wonderful job demonstrating the window display.

The restaurant on the main highway is called Alan's (Magee) and Jerry's (Hanlin) Place. It does such a booming business that four waitresses are needed. They are Janice Klus, Virginia Kerr, Carol Hanlin, and Alice Gregory.

Across the street, the neon sign of the Johnson & Johnson (David & Marjorie) Night Club attracts all in town. The main singing attraction is Linda Hanes backed up by Ross Fuller and Larry Obert's band. The waitress is Barbara Gross, and Sandra Lyons is the cigarette girl.

Beside the nightclub is a decorative beauty shop owned by Barbara Soety. Her assistant is Marlene Knight and June Bojaczko is the manicurist.

On the outskirts of town, Joe Matava's farm stretches for miles and miles. It supplies everyone with food and dairy products. His hired hands are Frank Maleski and David Toohey. Reba Bell is the chief cook and bottle washer, with Edna Sterling and Beatrice Shreve helping.

A school stands on the edge of town. It is a very small country school with only a few students. Mike Still is the principal with Gertrude Rowland and Janet Rose the only teachers.

Checking in town to see if we missed any establishment, we found a filling station. Jack Thomas does so well that he has hired Gene Dickson to fix rockets and Sophia Miller and Gayle Geer to bring in customers.

Naturally there is a court house in Beartown. At the moment, Peggy Alexander and Sylvia Shellito were on trial for drag racing their Ford and Chevy rockets on Main Street. As Judge Loretta Frontera sentenced them to three days of floating in space, the court stenographer, Wanda Gibbons, took it all down in Shorthand.

Last, but not least, we found a mammouth observation tower. Here, scientists worked frantically trying to find their way back to earth. Helmut Tuerk is the big wheel with Wally Huckno second in Command. Outside one of the main offices we find Raymond Wright guarding the office while inside Paul Chundrlek and Max Henry furiously dictating a letter to Phyllis Hall and Howard Long. In one corner Kenny Mitchell and Don Young sit cleaning their guns. In another corner Larry Hunter was listening to baseball scores. Martha Lasher was in the third corner dreaming and in the fourth corner we found Leon Barstow and Gary Besonson still trying to think of a project to do for Physics. At this rate, I doubt if they'll ever get back.

The Junior Class had a very successful magazine campaign. We topped all previous sales with a record-making sum of $3,100. Jill Danner won the high sales prize by selling $285 worth of magazines. Miss Pence's home room was the highest selling home room, and was given a party by the rest of the class.

We ordered our class rings in October and they arrived in January. Our rings are the first to bear the standard Union City Insignia.

We also did very well in class fights due to our excellent stamina, spirit, courage and our invincible motto, "Blood and Guts."

BRASS

The 1957-58 school year has been a busy year for the Senior Band. During the fall the band played for all the home football games and one away game. We held an ice-cream social at the beginning of the school year; we sold ice-cream and cake, and the band played a concert; this was very successful! We had a combined concert with Waterford High School which is the second annual combined concert of many to come. We met a lot of different boys and girls and had a lot of fun! Entertainment was provided by both schools when we weren't practicing. Even though it was hard work, it was worth all the effort we put into it. We also had a spring concert, and we played for the baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

In March we sent five students to district band which was held at Ackley. The students attending were: Peggy Alexander, Linda Hanes, Frances Tarbell, Larry Lyman, and Ross Fuller.
